1 Good cause exists for this request. The parties have conducted substantial document
2 discovery and written discovery, and they have commenced depositions. The parties have recently
3 made progress on a potential private resolution of this matter. In the interest of conserving party
4 and judicial resources, they wish to avoid taking immediate steps on further discovery. In addition,
5 Defendants' liability expert is recovering from an illness, which makes completion of a rebuttal 6 expert report impracticable in the near term.

7 Other than a stipulated motion by the parties to allow Plaintiff's filing of a Second
8 Amended Complaint, this is the first request by the parties to modify any dates in the scheduling 9 order.
